

At a General Assembly of the Governor and Company of the State of Connecticut, holden at Hartford by adjournment, on the seventh day of January Anno Domine [pronounced "A·now" "DAA muh nee"] 1779

Resolved by the Assembly that the several towns within the State which have not supplied their quota of blankets, overalls. and stockings which were ordered and directed by the General Assembly at their sessions in January 1778 by and they are hereby directed and enjoined forthwith to proceed and provide their field quota aforesaid and deliver the same to the Commissaries appointed to receive those articles, viz [pronounced as spelled but usually read aloud as "that is" or "namely"] blankets, woolen overalls or breeches, and woolen stockings, suitable for the winter season and that the same Commissaries and each and every other person who shall receive any of the said articles from the vendor or person who shall first procures the same shall carefully inspect and examine each and every article and reject all such Articles as are unsuitable or defective either in quality viz [pronounced as spelled but usually read aloud as "that is" or "namely"] on the workmanship and no pay on satisfaction shall be allowed therefore.

And if any Town shall neglect to furnish their quota of blankets ordered by the Assembly as aforesaid for the space of one month, they shall be doomed[?] at the discretion of the Assembly at their next on some future Session

And it is further Resolved by this Assembly that a quantity of shoe leather, chiefly shoe leather cut out in the proper form with shoe thread and wax be forthwith provided and forwarded to camp by the State Commissary to be used in mending the shoes of the soldiers in the Continental Army belonging to this State and that said Commissary proceed and conduct in the matters aforesaid agreeable to such orders as he may receive from his Excellency the Governor with the advice of his Council of Safety --

And be it further Resolved by this Assembly that his Excellency the Governor, with the advice of his Council of Safety be desired and empowered to appoint some suitable person or persons to procure any clothing that is or may be within this State, and appropriated for the use of Connecticut Troops to be made up in a good and effectual manner taking care to employ in that service as many of the tailors in the Army as may be ordered by the proper officers for that purpose --

A true copy of record

Examined

By George Wyllys [pronounced Will ISS] Secretary